If You Ever Want to Bring a Circus to the Library, Don't!

Elise Parsley

DESCRIPTION:

The third book in the bestselling MAGNOLIA SAYS DON'T! series is another loud and cautionary tale of what not to do—this time, at the library!

If you see a poster that says “You Can Do Anything at the Library!”, it is NOT giving you permission to put on a circus! But Magnolia doesn't see any problem with setting up her own big top. She's got a lot of gusto and one mean human cannonball routine. So what if her greatest show on Earth won't fit between bookshelves? Elise Parsley's boldly expressive illustrations perfectly complement this mostly-librarian-approved guide on how to be everything BUT quiet in the library!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- BESTSELLING SERIES: If You Ever Want to Bring an Alligator to School, Don't! was a New York Times bestseller!

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

Jerry Pinkney

DESCRIPTION:

A classic read-aloud favorite retold by multi-acclaimed artist Jerry Pinkney.

Jerry Pinkney puts his indelible stamp on another classic tale in the same vein as the Caldecott Medal-winning The Lion & the Mouse and the highly acclaimed The Tortoise & the Hare and The Grasshopper & the Ants.

When the three billy goats Gruff are hungry, they see bountiful grass to eat across an old bridge. But the bridge is home to a terrible troll, who is peckish himself, and looking for a tasty morsel to gobble up. In his interpretation of the timeless tale, Jerry Pinkney shows there's little good to come from greed—but in the end, redemption for even the most trollish bully is possible. A dramatic gatefold heightens the climax of this brilliant rendition.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- STAR ARTIST: The Lion & The Mouse was a NYT Bestseller for 41 weeks and won the Caldecott medal! Pinkney was the recipient of the 2016 Laura Ingalls Wilder Award and the Virginia Hamilton Award for Lifetime Achievement!
- DRAMATIC FOLD-OUT: Readers will love a gatefold that lifts to reveal the exciting confrontation with the bridge troll!
- THEME: Bullying is a key classroom topic.

The Books That Drive Kids Crazy: This Is a Ball

Beck and Matt Stanton

DESCRIPTION:

For the giggling masses who love Hervé Tullet's Press Here (global bestseller) and BJ Novak's The Book With No Pictures (#1 NYT bestseller) comes an interactive new series!

The Books That Drive Kids Crazy series capitalizes on the trend of interactive picture books—it's all about giving parents, teachers, and storytellers a script for fun reading time together. Book 1, This Is a Ball, is a boldly absurd spin-off of concept books, and an audaciously contrarian invitation for readers to practice deadpan delivery: after all, the picture on the cover clearly shows a cube, not a ball. The page that declares a princess is flying a kite at the beach shows an alien holding a balloon in a city...and on and on. What is WRONG with this silly book? Kids will demand to know—and all readers will be howling with laughter all along the way. With strikingly simple text and art, The Books that Drive Kids Crazy are perfect picks for emergent readers.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- HIGH CONCEPT: An easy pitch that taps into the interactive book trend.
- GREAT PACKAGE: Paper-over-board cover with rounded corners, uncoated paper, and a nonstandard trim stand out in the market.
- SUCCESS OVERSEAS: This Is a Ball has already sold more than 12,000 copies in the Australia/New Zealand market and has received wonderful reviews from retailers and reviewers alike!

Higher, Steeper, Faster

The Daredevils Who Conquered the Skies

Lawrence Goldstone

DESCRIPTION:

Discover the daring aviation pioneers who made the dream of powered flight a reality, forever changing the course of history.

Aviator Lincoln Beachey broke countless records: he looped-the-loop, flew upside down and in corkscrews, and was the first to pull his aircraft out of what was a typically fatal tailspin. Higher, Steeper, Faster takes readers inside the world of the brave men and women who popularized flying through their deadly stunts and paved the way for modern aviation. VIP: Battle of the Bands

By Jen Calonita, illustrated by Kristen Gudsnuk

DESCRIPTION:

Now in paperback, this sequel to VIP: I'm With the Band combines the popularity of diary and graphic novel storytelling styles into one hilarious romp.

Mac Lowell is living a dream come true on tour with her favorite boy band, Perfect Storm. But with screaming fans come haters and copycats, like Thunder and Lightning, a new band whose first single sounds suspiciously like the song Perfect Storm's guitarist wrote for Mac. As the two bands set out on a joint tour, more of Perfect Storm's secrets are leaked to the public. Where's the one place all these lyrics and secrets are supposedly being kept safe? In Mac's journal! Can Mac—and her comic-book alter ego, Mac Attack—stop the leaks and nab the culprit?

This sequel to I'm With the Band, which Kirkus said "hits the sweet spot for fans of Dork Diaries," is more exciting than a backstage pass.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

-WINNING COMBINATION: Combines the immense popularity of boy bands like One Direction with the illustrated diary storytelling style of bestselling middle grade series like Dork Diaries (Aladdin) and Middle School (Jimmy Patterson).

-EXCITING ILLUSTRATIONS: VIP features black-and-white illustrations by up-and-coming comic artist Kristen Gudsnuk, including graphic novel interstitials imagining the adventures of Mac's alter-ego "Mac Attack."

Jewell Parker Rhodes

DESCRIPTION:

A powerful novel by award-winning author Jewell Parker Rhodes set fifteen years after the 9/11 attacks — now in paperback.

When her fifth-grade teacher hints that a series of lessons about home and community will culminate with one big answer about two tall towers once visible outside their classroom window, Deja can't help but feel confused. She sets off on a journey of discovery, with new friends Ben and Sabeen by her side. But just as she gets closer to answering big questions about who she is, what America means, and how communities can grow (and heal), she uncovers new questions, too. Like, why does Pop get so angry when she brings up anything about the towers? Award-winning author Jewell Parker Rhodes tells a powerful story about young people who weren't alive to witness this defining moment in history, but who begin to realize how much it colors their every day.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A TOP 10 INDIE NEXT PICK: Says bookseller Cecilia Cackley, "This beautiful book celebrates friendship, resilience and family ties ... Readers will fall in love with Deja and her friends and wish that the book wouldn't end."

Jewell Parker Rhodes is an award-winning writer and acclaimed educator and speaker. She is the author of Ninth Ward, a Coretta Scott King honor book, Sugar, winner of the Jane Adams Peace Association book award, and Bayou Magic. She has also written many award-winning books for adults.

Emily Lloyd-Jones

DESCRIPTION:

A thrilling blend of sci-fi, paranormal horror, and romance—perfect for fans of Holly Black and Leigh Bardugo.

When Dee Moreno makes a deal with a demon—her heart in exchange for an escape from a disastrous home life—she finds her trade may be more than she bargained for. With reality turned on its head, Dee has only a group of other deal-making teens to keep her grounded, including the charming but secretive James Lancer. And as something like love grows between them amidst an otherworldly ordeal, Dee begins to wonder: can she give James her heart when it's no longer hers to give?
